Supported Life Conference 2016

On October 5 & 6, 2016 I attended the Supported Life Conference in Sacramento. I attended several sessions and learned a lot at the conference. It was really exciting to see people from my area as speakers. I saw Beverley Legault, from Creative Support Alternatives, in Murphys and Mary Ellen Sousa, from Creative Support Alternatives, in San Andreas and Joe Delgado, from Disability Resource Agency for Independent Living, in Sonora.

In the sessions I learned about living life to the fullest no matter how old you are. Beverley shared information about how to use a variety of supports to live on your own, become active in your community, work, volunteering, and enjoying life! I felt inspired to accomplish my goals.

Mary Ellen shared information about supporting the people who work with us and making sure that they feel appreciated so that they keep doing great work. They support us and have dreams and goals, just like we do. Don't forget to say thank you to the people that support you.

Joe told us that no matter what other people tell you, you can accomplish your goals and make your dreams come true. Many people told him that he couldn't and he wouldn't in his life. He proved them wrong and has done so many amazing things. It's important to remember that you can too!!
