Translators Needed

Valley Mountain Regional Center (VMRC) is recruiting Translators to be vendored to provide translation services to persons with developmental disabilities and their families. Translators are not hired as VMRC employees, but would be self-employed vendors. Vendored translators are placed on a list for VMRC Service Coordinators (social workers) to choose from; therefore, services may be sporadic. Translation services are usually provided on week days during normal business hours, 8am to 5pm.

VMRC is currently in need of individuals fluent in English and the following languages:

- Spanish – primarily in Amador, Calaveras, and Tuolumne Counties
- Tagalog – primarily in San Joaquin and Stanislaus County
- Arabic, Farsi, Dari – primarily in San Joaquin County
- All Southeast Asian Languages (especially Cambodian, Vietnamese, Hmong) – all Counties
- Mandarin and Cantonese – primarily in San Joaquin County

Service Location: Services will be provided at various locations (family's home, doctor's office, etc.). VMRC serves Amador, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Tuolumne Counties. You may choose which counties you are willing to serve.

Maximum Rates of Compensation:

- $27.24 per hour
